Fees/Food:

The Painters' Frolic booth fee is $35 and is non-refundable once your registration is completed. Commissions will NOT be charged on sales. All sales are private between the artist and the buyer. Box lunches are available for $5 and will be delivered to your booth. Several fast food restaurants are located nearby.

Space Allocation:

The booth space is approximately 8' wide x 6' deep. Art may NOT be hung on the convention center walls. You will need to provide fixtures (easels, panels, etc.) for all artwork. If you need display panels, let us know. Spaces are assigned on a "first come, first served" basis.

Set-up:

Set-up begins at 8:00 am on Sunday, March 28. Breakdown will start at 5:00 pm. Your booth includes a 6' table and a chair. You MUST bring a drop cloth (plastic or canvas) or purchase ($6) one the day of the event.

Publicity:

Marketing includes publicity in newspapers, radio, and direct mail. Postcards will be available to artists who would like to send to a contact list.

Judging:

All judging will be provided by the public the day of the event. Choices will be based on displayed artwork as well as work in progress. Visitors will elect their favorite artist by depositing their ticket stub. Top three stub totals will be awarded 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place cash prizes.

Information Packet:

An information packet will be sent as soon as we receive your registration form and payment.
